REPORTING YOUR CREDIT

This on-demand seminar was originally presented as live webcasts on February 4, 2025, in Seattle, WA. If you attended the live webcasts and reported CLE credits, you cannot also report credits from watching or listening to this recording if repeated within your three-year reporting period.

DESCRIPTION

This special seminar, originally designed as part of the WSBA Reinstatement Course, is now offered to all interested members and other legal professionals. The content has been vetted as essential information that an attorney practicing in Washington today must know.

AGENDA

1 Professional Responsibility and Client Communications

Using the Washington Rules of Professional Conduct, WSBA Ethics Advisory Opinions, and hypotheticals, WSBA's Professional Responsibility Counsel and an experienced Washington practitioner address best practices for managing client communications from initially choosing clients carefully to drafting a closing letter when representation ends.

Sherry Bosse Lueders - Beresford Booth, Edmonds, WA

Sandra Schilling - Washington State Bar Association, Seattle, WA

2 Indian Law and Tribal Sovereignty

Indian law is among the most complex areas of law. Each case is fact-driven and requires careful analysis of the intersection of tribal, state, and federal law. Whether Indian law is a significant part of your practice – or only touches your practice occasionally, this session will give you a better understanding of Indian law and the complex interplay of tribal, state, and federal jurisdiction.

Derek Red Arrow Frank - Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP, Seattle, WA

3 Law Office Management and Ethics

Follow along with Ann as she goes over twelve tips to run a law practice efficiently and ethically. Ann will incorporate the RPCs along with her experience consulting with attorneys, to help you run a successful, ethical practice.

Ann Guinn - G&P Associates, Reno, NV

4 Inadvertent Disclosure of Electronic Information

Information is the lifeblood of any discovery effort, especially if it is the necessary prerequisite to filing a lawsuit. The modern litigator must be able to navigate information repositories, regardless of their forms. In this presentation learn what you need to know to competently manage electronically stored information (“ESI”) including a review of new terminology relevant to the challenges of the digital world.

Craig T. Kobayashi – Attorney at Law, Seattle, WA

James T. Yand – Miller Nash LLP, Seattle, WA

5 Current Trends in Family Law

This session takes you through current trends in family law on the following topics:

- Family Law Update: Cases and Statutes
- Domestic Violence and Safety Planning
- Plain Language Forms
- E-Service and E-Filing
- Motions
- Parenting Plans
- Child Support
- Maintenance
- Attorney’s Fees
- Discovery

Tonya Meehan – Michael W. Bugni & Associates, Seattle, WA

6 Rules of Evidence and Surviving Your First Trial

Refresh your knowledge on the rules of evidence in Washington and how they differ from the law in other U.S. jurisdictions. Topics include:

- Source and purpose of Washington evidence law
- Dealing with unresponsive answers and inadvertent remarks
- Special considerations in nonjury proceedings
- Relevance
- Expert testimony
- Hearsay basics
- Evidence in digital form

Michael Kittleson – Le & Kittleson, Renton, WA
