REPORTING YOUR CREDIT

This on-demand seminar was originally presented as a live webcast on May 27, 2025, in Seattle, WA. If you attended the live webcast and reported CLE credits, you cannot also report credits from watching or listening to this recording if repeated within your three year reporting period.

DESCRIPTION

Join us for a timely and in-depth seminar exploring the Supreme Court's decision in City of Grants Pass v. Johnson and Washington's legislative response in HB 1380. This 90-minute session will unpack the legal, practical, and ethical implications of the ruling on municipal enforcement of anti-camping laws, and how HB 1380 reshapes the landscape for homelessness policy in Washington State. This program offers critical insights into the evolving intersection of constitutional law and local governance.
