

Legal Lunchbox™ Series: Meaningful Mentorship for Busy Practitioners

ORIGINAL PROGRAM DATE

February 24, 2023

REPORTING YOUR CREDIT

This on-demand program was originally presented as part of the live seminar What Can and Does Mentorship Mean: Beyond the Coffee Check-In presented on February 24, 2023. If you attended or viewed the original presentation, please note that WSBA members may not claim credit for the same CLE sessions if repeated within their three-year reporting period.

DESCRIPTION

This CLE program offers two 45-minute sessions focused on practical, modern approaches to mentorship in the legal profession. The first session explores manageable, low-commitment ways attorneys can support students and new practitioners. The second session provides actionable tools for building effective, inclusive mentor-mentee relationships and highlights the mutual benefits of strong mentorship. Together, the sessions aim to help attorneys integrate meaningful mentorship into busy practices.

AGENDA

1 Mentoring in Minutes

This session addresses how to build mentorship into your busy schedule without feeling overwhelmed or overcommitted. Students and new attorneys can benefit from interactions with you that do not require regular in-person or virtual meetings. You will understand alternative ways to make mentoring a consistent part of your practice!

Jessica Roberts – Davis Wright Tremaine, Seattle, WA

2 Modern Mentorship

This session provides actionable tools that current and aspiring mentors and mentees can use to unlock value from mentoring relationships. Join us to learn:

- (1) what mentorship means today
- (2) why mentorship benefits both parties
- (3) diversity and inclusion in mentorship
- (4) the nuts and bolts of making mentorship work

Danica Noble – Federal Trade Commission, Seattle, WA

Jay Conrad (they/them) – Federal Trade Commission, Seattle, WA

Paula Pera – Washington State Office of the Attorney General, Seattle, WA